GARY SOBERS - THE KING OF CRICKET - John La Porta -

On Dec. 2, 1966, Barbados issued a set of four stamps marking its new status as an independent nation. The world-renowned captain of the West Indies Cricket team, Gary Sobers, was honored on the 35¢ value. The series was designed by Victor Whiteley and photogravure printed by Harrison and Sons Ltd. in sheets of 100 on unwatermarked paper.

Garfield St. Aubrun Sobers, whose first organized cricket was at the age of 10 for Bay Street School, was born on the island of Barbados in the West Indies on July 18, 1936. His keen enthusiasm for the game, preferably against older boys and sterner competition, was displayed in his impressive performances. Sabina Park, Kingston, was to play a big part in his cricketing triumphs.

At 18, when the West Indies was in the faltering state of 110 for 7, his scores were 14 not out and 26. Since this time, Sobers has achieved the unique record of 4,000 runs and 100 wickets in Test cricket. The only possible comparison is Hammond's 7,249 runs and 89 wickets for England. However, no one has been as versatile as Sobers in this or any generation. A supremely gifted genius, Sobers was never coached. His taste for big scores, combined with his sharp reflexes, led him to an average of 137.33 in the Fourth Test at Georgetown. A tour of India and Pakistan followed and Sobers extended his run of centuries to six in successive Tests. He continued to bat with unabated zest and skill.

Following conquests in 1960 and 1961 in Australia, he scored 132 at Brisbane and 168 at Sydney. In 1962 and 1963 he did what no Australian player had been able to do - score 1,000 runs and take 50 wickets in the Sheffield Shield competition. However, there were times in his formative years when Sobers had far from spectacular success. In four Tests in New Zealand he managed only 81 runs and 2 wickets and he had modest returns in England in 1957. By 1963, however, he missed only six matches and never failed to make an outstanding contribution in one way or another.

Having so much to offer, Sobers is much in demand for private tours to distant parts of the world. In 1964 he was in Calcutta, Penang, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Bangkok, as well as Vancouver and Hollywood. English county cricket cannot afford him, so northern leagues claim him.

Sobers is king wherever he plays. At present, he is in the middle of a five year contract with Norton. Sabina Park very fittingly saw Sobers' ultimate triumph of captaining the West Indies. With his innate skill and instinctive flair, he led the West Indies to their first victory over Australia on home soil. Greatly respected by his team, Sobers' brilliant captaincy made the West Indies the best team in the world.

No player has ever been asked to do so much. In fact, no player has given so much so capably.

Cricket on stamps: Pakistan #166, Guyana #36-8, St. Lucia #229-30, Barbados #292.

"TEMATICA POZNAN 68"

- Walter Szymlek -

For the conclusion of the very successful First International Topical Exhibition 'Tematica Poznan 68', the Polish Philatelic Federation jointly with the Poznan Chapter of the Aero-Club Poznan organised a special Balloon Post.

The occasion for the flight was the meeting of the Polish Olympic Clubs, and also to promote and advertise the Olympic Games in Mexico. The balloon 'Katowice' transported the mail for this special flight, which included letters, cards and covers franked 'Special Delivery' (Express) plus the flight vignette of 3.-złote value.

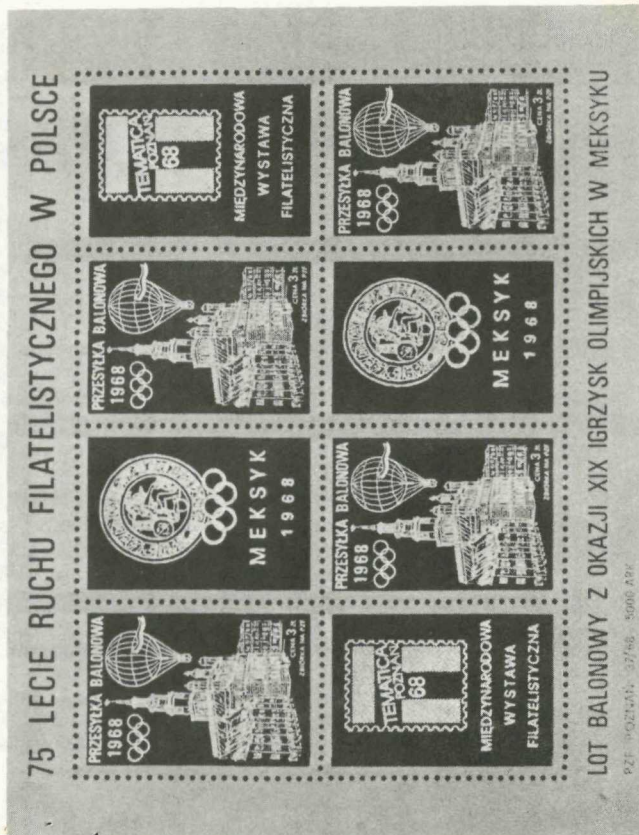

The vignettes for the flight were printed in sheets of eight: four stamps (flight vignettes) and four labels alternating the theme: 'Tematica Poznan 1968' and 'Mexico 1968'. They were issued imperf. only (blind perforations) and the total printing of sheets was 5000 - 20,000 stamps (vignettes). The vignettes are so arranged as to make all sorts of combinations possible.

The vignettes for the flight were very popular and were sold out two weeks before the event took place, and mint copies are very scarce and hard to get. The total number of pieces flown is not known at this time, but evidently most of them found their way on letters and cards.

The Poznan Chapter of the Polish Philatelic Federation issued special flight postal cards; total printing of these cards was 7000. The cachet of the balloon flight card has for its theme the Olympic Games in Mexico, but covers and cards other than this were admitted for the flight, provided the flight vignette and proper 'express' postage was used for franking.

The flight took place Aug. 11, 1968. The landing place of the balloon is indicated on the flown pieces by a postmark from the Post Office at Pobiedziska.

The illustrations shown: Special flight postal card with vignettes in upper left-hand corner tied in with the balloon cancellation, the large cancellation is that of the Olympic Clubs which ties in the postage stamp and the philatelic exhibition seal, the small cancellation is the city in which the balloon landed - Pobiedziska - and the vignette sheet.

For those of us who have grown soft and older and are unable to enjoy strenuous hiking and climbing there is an opportunity to enjoy the fascinating hobby of stamp collecting. During the past ten years the writer has attempted, and failed, to reach the summits of Mt. Blanc, Gross Glockner, Mt. Fuji, and the Matterhorn. These unattainable peaks are now enjoyed from scenic stamp views. However the writer did get up to the Hornli Hutte on the Matterhorn, across the Mer de Glace on Blanc and to the 8,000 foot level of Fuji. Maybe this is as far as a 60 year old should go. Now the fingers do the climbing - inserting the stamps in the proper places.

Every postage stamp is an engraved work of art. A stamp collector is in the same class as a fine painting collector, but stamps are much lower in price. Most of the stamps mentioned in this article have been purchased from dealers specializing in sports stamps and from fellow members of SPI. As the years go on, the stamps do increase in value, but this should not be the aim of the collector.

The writer does not possess a complete collection of all stamps relating to hiking and climbing. The aim was to collect only stamps commemorating important events in mountaineering history. Mention will be briefly made of a few outstanding issues.

Armenia starts the listing with a 1921 set including a view of Mount Ararat. This is the first peak climbed by man according to the biblical story by Noah.

In 1962, Brazil issued a stamp to honor the 59th anniversary of the climbing of a famous Rio peak "Dedo de Dios" (Finger of God). In March of this year the writer visited Rio and climbed the 100 steps or more, the new easy way to the summit. The views from this peak are sublime, especially at night with the thousands of harbor lights. In 1967 the little principality of Bhutan issued a set of scout stamps, one showing the mountaineering activity of the scouts of the world.

"Christ of the Andes" stamp was issued by Chile in 1955 with the coat of arms of Argentina and Chile. The author flew over this most famous statue by plane on the recent tour of South America.

The Dominican Republic issued a set of stamps to honor the Olympic heroes of the world. Norman Read of New Zealand, winner of the gold medal in walking in 1956 is portrayed using his smooth heel and toe glide. In 1920 the writer tried out for the USA Olympic walking team but failed to qualify.

India in 1953 issued two beautiful stamps to honor the greatest event in the history of mountaineering, the conquest of Everest. Many other countries have issued stamps when their expeditions reached the summit except the United States.

Italy honored their centenary of the founding of their Alpine Club in 1963. They also honored their Alpine troops of WWII in 1952.

The Japanese have pictured their fine climbers on many stamps. In 1936 they pictured their sacred Mt. Fuji with four scenic views. Jugoslavia dedicated an issue to the International Union of Mountaineers, the great mountain guides of the world.

The Netherlands, not having mountains to speak of, honored their many hikers and campers with an issue of five stamps in 1949. Norway brought out a stamp set of three for their Norwegian Mountain Touring Association in 1968. New Zealand, home of an Everest climber, issued a stamp showing a climber with map surveying the terrain.

In 1964, Russia issued a set of three mountaineering stamps to publicize the development of climbing. They have issued many stamps to promote climbing. Hosteling has been pictured by the Saar in 1949 with a stamp showing hikers approaching the Weisskirchen Hostel.

San Marino issued two stamps to honor speed walking in 1954. In 1962 they brought out a set of technical mountaineering stamps illustrating cutting steps in ice, descending by rope, and climbing an overhang.

The centenary of the first ascent of the Matterhorn was publicized by Switzerland in 1965. In 1968 they honored the 50th anniversary of the Swiss Women's Alpine Club with a unique stamp. Uganda, Tanzania and Kenya have issued a beautiful set of four stamps of mountaineering in East Africa.

The United States issued a set of national parks featuring El Capitan in the Yosemite Valley, Mt. Rainier in Washington state, Great Head in Acadia Park, Great White Throne in Zion, Mt. Rockwell in Glacier and the Great Smokies. Later Mt. McKinley was featured, also a covered wagon with Mt. Hood. In 1964 John Muir was honored along with the Redwood Forest. He was the founder of the famous Sierra Club. Today this club is under attack by the Federal Government for its conservation promotional advertising.

Lets hear from other collectors of mountaineering on stamps.

Mrs. Williams says the medal as shown is double the actual size.

(Note - in the printing and reduction process the size may appear smaller than the photograph Barbara sent - for the record, the diameter of the photograph was 2 1/4 inches)

With the 1970 World Soccer Cup in the offing, I have had many requests for a comprehensive list of soccer stamps, in chronological order. I would like to know of anything which is missing, in the way of Imperfs, Errors, ect. Those matches for which SPI is still lacking a record of results are prefaced by a question mark, (?). If any of our members can supply the information, please let me know. BARBARA T. WILLIAMS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We have several plans in view for SPI. It has been suggested that we print labels for our philatelic mail. This will soon be done. The U.S. is bringing out a stamp for the 100th anniversary of American football. SPI plans to print and distribute a cachet cover for the event.

A new membership directory is being typed, and will soon be out. It has been two years since we had the last one.

Bob Bruce is due in Los Angeles the fifth of January, and I look forward to formating more plans for SPI.

We do have one problem. Helen Turner has been doing the typing for JSP for the last year. After the Nov-Dec 1969 issue, she will no longer be able to do so. She will be taking an extended tour of the Orient, so we will have to have another typist. It comes down to that - I can't do it all.

Our September-October issue of JSP was given a nice write-up in the December 1968 issue of the International Olympic Committee - Newsletter.

MODERN OLYMPIC MEDALLISTS ON STAMPS
SECTION 1 - SUPPLEMENT TWO - ADDENDA TO 1965 SUPPLEMENT TO PART ONE
- Jim Hughes -

Just received (Dec. 1965) a set of six stamps (perf. and imperf.) and a imperf. souvenir sheet from Yemen (Kingdom of) inscribed winners of the Tokyo Olympic Games. As far as I can tell these stamps were not issued in honor of any particular individual (unless the Arabic inscriptions - which I cannot read - gives the names of the individual winners), but rather the overall winners in six different sports at Tokyo.

All of the stamps (except the souvenir sheet) shows a portion of the Olympic Medal (in gold) in the lower left part of the design. The 1/8-bog is in dark blue with figures of two soccer players in brown, with the lettering, medals and Olympic rings in gold on all values and 'YEMEN' in white. Hungary won the soccer championships at Tokyo, defeating Czechoslovakia 2-1, in the finals.

The 1/4-bog value in light brown depicts a runner (male) in green and white and the Tokyo Olympic Stadium in the background. This appears to be a distance runner, perhaps it was intended to honor the Marathon winner, Abebe Bikila of Ethiopia.

The 1/2-bog value in light blue shows a male discus thrower and the Tokyo Olympic Stadium in the background (in white). This event was won by Alfred Oerter of the U.S., with a new Olympic record toss of 200' 1 1/2".

On the 2-bog value (pink) are two judo contestants in action (in blue and white) with Nippon Budokan Hall in the background, site of this new Olympic event. The Japanese won three of the four events with Antonius Geesink, of the Netherlands winning the Open Class (unlimited weight).

The 4-bog value (in purple) depicts two wrestlers (in olive-green) and the background shows the Komazawa Gymnasium, venue for the wrestling events. There are 8 classes (weight divisions) each in the Free Style and Greco-Roman wrestling events. Japan emerged as the top wrestling nation by winning five of the events at Tokyo.

The final value, 4-bog, is in olive-green showing a horse and rider (in brown) jumping over a fence (in white). This design is also repeated on the imperforated souvenir sheet with an overall gray background with inscriptions in Arabic and in English, Olympic Rings and Torch in gold and the "4-bogash" value in brown with a white outline of an equestrian jumper in the lower right part of the design.

There are three individual and three team equestrian events, dressage, three-day, and jumping events. The individual jumping "Prix des Nations" event was won by P. Jonquieres d'Oriola riding "Lutteur" (of France), while the team event was won by Germany, Hermann Schridde on "Dozen II", Kurt Jarasinski on "Torro", and Hans-Gunter Winkler on "Fidelitas".
