PHILATELIC GOLF by George Aulbach

Topical philatelists - want an interesting challenge? Take a look at the refreshing topical field of GOLF, golf cancellations and golf meters. They are not too expensive, just difficult to locate requiring much time and effort. If you should play a little golf, the subject will hold more interest.

First, we must understand and appreciate the position of golf in the world today. It is played by over 25 million in more than 100 countries, it is international. We believe it originated in Scotland over four centuries ago, before America was discovered. Today it is the largest combination participant and spectator sport in the world. Millions each year play or watch golf matches on TV.

Golf is a stepping stone for many people for many things. The necessary playing and course maintenance equipment has developed the game into a multi billion dollar industry. To the average business man, its action for recreation. To many executives, it is a medium to promote better business relations and new contacts. Others play for its social value. Golf is a natural attraction around the world for the promotion of resort tourist trade. This is where it hits the philatelic target. Undeveloped countries are using golf stamps to push tourism and more income for their areas. Each year the British use a variety of cancellations promoting charity related golf tournaments. In this country we see many kinds of commercial meter postage promoting golf equipment, tournaments and golfing resorts. This three way combination of stamps, cancels and meters make an ideal subject for a topical arrangement. Keeping up with current items is a challenge.

How do you put such an arrangement together. Of course, that is entirely up to the individual collector. I like to get the stamps in mint, also a first day cover. Since there are very few dealers in these low demand items, sometimes it takes months to locate the items wanted. On my album pages I like to show a map of the country where the stamp was issued with other pertinent information. The purpose of these stamps from the undeveloped countries is to build prestige and attract tourism dollars. It is interesting to note that these stamps are very well designed, colorful and represent the subject well.

Since about 75% of all golf is played in English speaking countries, it is difficult to understand the USA or Great Britain have not issued such a stamp when they have honored most every other sport with postage issues. (Editor's note: this article was received just prior to the surprise entry of the commemorative stamped envelope by the USA honoring the sport of golf. Please see the following article.) Just before the death of President John F. Kennedy, it was reported he promised a personal effort for such an issue as part of his national health program. One advantage of a golf topical collection is that it is not overburdened with high priced issues, at least not at this time. In all, about 20 golf stamps have been issued in the past 25 years. Japan is next with over 5 million playing on more than a 1,000 courses. Japan was also first to recognize golf in its postal history with a stamp on November 20, 1952 showing a view of a course.

Golf collectors should make themselves known. Through co-operation, collecting together and the exchange of information and material, we can all have more pleasure. George Aulbach, 423 Church Street, Selma, Alabama 36701.

SURPRISE GOLF ENVELOPE

The U.S.P.S. issued a commemorative stamped envelope honoring the sport of Golf on the 7th of April 1977 during the Masters Tournament at the Augusta National Golf Club, Augusta, Georgia. The Golf envelope features an indicia produced by a combination of three-color rotogravure printing and embossed, depicting a golf club in four sequential positions moving toward the point of impact with a golf ball. The four positions are shown in outline black, green, blue, and solid black. The golf ball is embossed on the envelope. Above the ball appears "Golf" in blue and "USA" in green. To the right, also in green, is "13c". The three colors are applied by rotogravure process after which the golf ball is embossed on the envelope. The indicia was designed by Guy Salvato, of Columbus, Ohio. The envelope comes in four types. There are two each of the No. 6 $\frac{3}{4}$ and No. 10 sizes with and without the window,

OLYMPIC & SPORTS PHILATELY IN 1980

by Joe Schirmer, Associate Editor

It is now 1 January 1980 and we are all looking forward to the coming Olympic Winter Games in Lake Placid and the Olympic Summer Games in Moscow. Publicity has been flowing like the Proverbial stream for the past 1½ years... newspaper, magazine and TV coverage has been the most sophisticated and elaborate in the annals of the Games... and not to be outdone, the stamp dealers and promoters are waiting in the wings. Alas, there are no African nations participating and for that matter; there are but a few of the Central and South American nations entered. Naturally this was brought about by the political happening at Montreal in 1976 along with racial waring concerning South Africa. Think this cannot happen? Be realistic friends, IT CAN HAPPEN. And if it does, just think of the effects on our particular topical phase of philately.

No gold issues, no wallpaper issues, no imperfs, no souvenir sheets, no deluxe sheets, etc. And think of the money and space and time the collector will save. Of course the honorable promoter and dealer will suffer (good!), but believe me, they will find a way to combat this... I know.

Thus, our phase of philately will be truly called Sports & Olympics... only participating nations will be a few stamps... valid ones at that... and we will once again be in the era of old-time philately... whether or not this is good for it, I am not really positive at this time, but I sure know this much; collections will once again be what they are supposed to be --- Olympic and Sports --- think about that!

LETS POOL OUR OLYMPIC AND SPORTS KNOWLEDGE

Edited by Edward B. Epstein

Sports and Olympic philatelists have, collectively, a great deal of knowledge, which when pooled, can be of mutual benefit. Questions concerning sports and Olympic philately will be assigned a number and published in JSP. Responses to questions will be printed in subsequent issues. Address all questions and answers to your editor: Edward B. Epstein, Paterson Board of Education, 33 Church St., Paterson, NJ 07505 U.S.A.

A-40 It took twelve days to relay the Olympic flame from Olympia, Greece to Berlin in 1936. It took less than a fraction of a second to send the flame from Greece, across the ocean, to Canada forty years later. Such is technological progress!

The details of this technological progress was researched by your editor who used the following sources of information: The Olympian Magazine; Nov. 1975, 1976 United States Olympic Book, Games of the XXI Olympiad, Montreal 1976/All About The Games, (Published by COJO), and 1976 Olympic Games Ceremonies Stamp Information folder, Post Canada. The following explanation is a compilation from the material cited above: The task of drawing up the itinerary and the method of transporting the Olympic flame between Olympia and Montreal was assigned to the Montreal Dir. General of Protocol, Charles de Lotbiniere Harwood. Knowing that pictures and sound could be transmitted by satellite from one continent to another in a matter of seconds he asked friends at Bell Canada if it was feasible to transmit the flame by electronics. The answer was YES. After much research it was decided what for the Games of the XXI Olympiad the sun at Olympia will, as usual, kindle the flame. However, once the runners bring it to Athens, a satellite will transmit it to Canada.

On July 13, 1976, at Olympia, the traditional flame lighting ceremony began. The trip to Athens was accomplished in less than two days, 500 relay runners took part in the exercise. At Athens, on July 15 a Canadian athlete lit the flame at the Panathena Stadium. During the ceremonies a flame was lit from the urn and carried manually to an "ionic sensor" to be converted into electrical energy.

The flame, when placed between two charged metal plates, stimulated an electrical voltage. This triggered a device which produced a sequence of tones which traveled over telephone lines to a Greek transmitting station. The signal was transmitted through the Hellenic Telecommunications Organization network to the "Intelsat" satellite. When the tones landed in Canada they were flashed via telephone wires to Parliament Hill in Ottawa and they reverted to their fiery form through the medium of a laser beam.

A relay team of 230 Canadian runners brought the flame to the summit of Mt. Royal on the eve of the Games where its resting place was the foot of the cross that commemorates the safe arrival of Paul de Chomedey, Sieur de Maisonneuve, founder of the city of Montreal. Then seven minutes under two hours after the July 17th Opening Day ceremonies began, the Olympic flame was carried into the stadium - held jointly for another Olympic Games' first - by Stephen Prefontaine and Sandra Anderson. After making a half circuit of the track Stephen and Sandra mounted the platform in the middle of the Olympic stadium to light the urn as the choirs sang the Olympic Cantata, written especially for the Games by Louis P. Chantigny.

Q-43 Does and SPI member have information about the symbolic design on the Indonesian set issued Oct. 15, 1951 publicizing Jakarta's Second National Games (Scott #B63-67)?

Q-44 I have heard that competitive ice skaters have to execute certain jumps and spins which are judged on a technical basis in the short free ice skating competition. Are these compulsory skating movements illustrated on sports and/or Olympic stamps? If so, what are their Scott numbers?

500 MILE RACE ----

Travis L. Land, one of the founding members of SPI, died on March 21st. He was a well known philatelist and once was quite important in the sports topical field. From September 1960, until August 1962, he edited for the Sports Unit of ATA (the predecessor of SPI) the predecessor of JSP, SportStamps. He was a dreamer, but also a pretty good doer. After we split from the ATA, he never was as enthusiastic about collecting sport stamps. . . . Edwin Parrasch captured the Grand Award for his "A Trip to the 1936 Olympic Games" at the Federation of Iowa Stamp Clubs held on April 16-17 and hosted by the Cedar Rapids Stamp Club.

CANADA'S OLYMPIC POSTAGE METER IMPRINTS

by Edward B. Epstein, Associate Editor

The primary aim of Canada's meter imprint program was to augment Montreal's Olympic Action Stamps which, in Post Canada's own words, explained that "Taking part in the 1976 Olympics shouldn't be left solely to the athletes in training. To be successful, the Games require participation by individuals, firms and organizations all across Canada, throughout every region, at every level. To facilitate this participation the Canada Post Office has issued special Olympic Action Stamps which include a surcharge (Canada's first semi-postal issue.) These, therefore, permit Canadians to contribute directly to the 1976 Games and to the training of Canadian amateur athletes. A portion of the revenues from the Olympic Stamp Programme is donated to Games Plan '76 and to Amateur sport associations across the country."

Officials of Post Canada realized that a large potential revenue market existed with Canada's business firms. However, rather than using postage stamps, many Canadian firms employ meter machines for postage. It logically followed that the meter market could and should be used not only to advertise the 21st Olympiad but as a means of fund raising.

This philosophy was confirmed by Post Canada. Answering the question "What are Olympic Postage Meter Imprints?" the "How You Can Participate" folder stated, "The Canadian Post Office realizes, of course, that businesses and organizations using postage meters find it difficult to participate through the use of Olympic Action Stamps. For this reason we are offering for sale special Olympic Postage Meter Imprints which will fit your meter machine and allow you to announce to all your customers and correspondents that you are actively supporting the 1976 Olympics."

The brochure continued, "Olympic Postage Meter Imprints are available in 1) English, in 2) a bilingual format, or in 3) French. And we'll order them from the company you are used to dealing with for your postage meter supplies, so you can be sure the Imprint(s) will fit your particular machine(s)."

The folder specified the cost factor as "Each Imprint costs only $150. Order as many as you like and use them from now to the end of 1976. You pay just $150. each when you order the imprints. That's all. No extra charges, no matter how often you use them, no matter how many pieces of mail pass through your mail system. Of course, the cost of these imprints is deductible from your income tax as a business expense."

Although the official signing, on Parliament Hill, with the four meter imprint companies was on January 24, 1975 the first date of the first slogan imprint was October 17, 1974 (Fig. 1). It was struck in conjunction with Robert Simpson's Toronto department store's "Bravo Canada." James Mintz, Advertising and Sales Promotion Supervisor for Post Canada explained that "Bravo Canada" is a yearly exhibition of new Canadian products held in the Toronto store. He continued, "Since they had set up a post Office in the department store for the sale of Canadian stamps, we thought it would be a good idea to 'kick off' the imprint program at that time. To mark the occasion approximately one-hundred and fifty of these slogans were imprinted, for officials, on engraved executive stationery."

An examination of the front (fig. 2) and reverse side (fig. 3) of the Olympic Postage Meter Imprint Programme Application Form No. 105 060 reveals several interesting aspects to those collectors seeking examples of the imprints for their collection. The four meter imprint companies used in the program were Pitney-Bowes, Singer Business Machines, Rono-Vickers and Bohls (Bohls eventually did not participate in the program). With the exception of Bohls the other companies had a variety of machine models which in turn, would affect the size of the imprint; as illustrated on the reverse side of the application (fig. 3). This produced a variety of heights, widths, and styles of lettering for the slogan imprints. Depending on the series number of the machine, and the company which produced it, the variety of types and styles must be considerable. The reverse side of the application gives the reader an idea of the size of the imprints which the machines produced. The firm who used Pitney-Bowes machine series 5306 would be different from series 5711, RT, or DM series. Add to these facts that the slogans were produced in French, English and Bilingual and you come up with a fantastic variety of styles.

The following excerpts from the "Team Equipe" bulletins, issued by the Canada Post, gives the reader some idea of the advertising campaign time line for the program: "On Jan. 29, 1975 all daily and weekly press, as well as all TV and major radio stations across Canada will receive a press kit announcing the meter imprint program." "Mention of the Program was made on the C TV network on Jan. 31, 1975 at the Canadian Figure Skating Championships in Quebec City." "Again it will be carried on CTV network on the Wide World of Sports program on Saturday, March 15 and March 22, 1975." "On Jan. 22, 1975 a personal letter from the Postmaster General is going out to 1,000 chief executives of top meter users in Canada. One week later this mailing with a letter and brochure from His Excellency Roger Rousseau. Two weeks later a final letter from the Director of Postage and Retail Products, Canada Post, Harold Nightengale will go out to all of those who have not replied to the first two letters."

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

FIG. 7

The following information was received from Post Canada by your author about the number of business organizations who participated in the program. "There are over 2,000 companies on record which purchased Olympic postage meter imprints from Canada Post and this information is not available to anyone outside the Post Office itself . . . with regard to which companies purchased which type of imprint from any particular (meter) company, all I can tell you is that no imprints were ever produced by Bphls . . . The certificate of participation of which you speak was an integral part of the Program used as a promotional piece."

Here illustrated are a number of imprints (figs. 4, 5, & 6) were the first specimens struck for Simpson's Ottawa Dept. store. These, and the first date imprint for Simpson's Toronto Dept. store. (fig. 1) seem, at first glance, the same. However, there are two differences. Although both stores employed Pitney-Bowes imprints the widths of the postal value boxes are different. Secondly, the slogan "We Help It Happen" are of different sizes. The slogan imprint used by Montreal's branch of the Royal Bank of Canada (fig. 7) uses capital and lower case letters in four lines for their bilingual imprint. An example used by Ontario Hydro, also uses four lines. However, each word is on a separate line. These are just a few examples that illustrate the diversity of types and styles used in the program. For those who are considering a complete collection of these imprints, all I can say is . . . "GODD HUNTING!!!"

NEW STUDY GROUP OPPORTUNITIES

*by Sherwin Podolsky
16035 Tupper Street
Sepulveda, CA 91343*

With the success of SPI's first handbook completed, members might like to consider new challenges and form study groups around one or more of the following subjects in U.S. stamps:

1. The philately of the 1932 Olympic stamps---including such areas as varieties, proofs, design history, quantities, plates, shades, essays and anything else mainly leading to the development of the issued stamps.
2. The philately and postal history of:
 - a. The 1939 Baseball Centennial stamp, Scott 855.
 - b. The 1948 American Turners stamp, Scott 979.
 - c. The 1960 Olympic Winter Games stamp, Scott 1146.
 - d. The 1961 Basketball stamp, Scott 1189.
 - e. The 1965 Physical Fitness--Sokol stamp, Scott 1262.
 - f. The 1967 Thomas Eakins stamp, Scott 1335.
 - g. The 1969 Baseball stamp, Scott 1381.
 - h. The 1969 Intercollegiate Football stamp, Scott 1382.
 - i. The 1972 Olympic Games stamps, Scott 1460-62.
 - j. The 1974 Horse Racing stamp, Scott 1528.

Postal history would include classification of all kinds of cachets, souvenir cards if any, First Day statistics, unofficial cities FDC's, and related areas involving the use of the stamps. One research area would be to contact appropriate societies or institutions to find out if they issued any cachets or folders or how they philatelically celebrated the issue. FD program folders are another area along with the FD postmarks and meters possibly.

At the moment we need study group leaders to come forth and who will be announced in forthcoming JSP's. The leaders will seek volunteers or others to participate and share the fun of study. The results of their study will make much interesting reading in future issues of JSP or possible handbooks. If the study group wishes to sponsor its own publication of findings, SPI will be happy to cooperate.

Now is the time to start a fresh philatelic project. Please let me know your choice.

THE ADVISORY GAME

by Sherwin Podolsky
Associate Editor

You, too, can play it. It's the stamp market tipster, the philatelic advisor game. All you need is the right language to couch your suggestions and an impressionable audience. Here is a model that can help put you in the business.

"Postal rates have risen rapidly lately and many stamps usually on sale at the ——— Post Office become obsolete in a short time. Remainders are withdrawn and usually destroyed. Check your album and make sure you have all the ——— issues of ——— of the last ——— years. There are bound to be many sleepers. One that is starting to go up rapidly is ——— ——— ——— issued in ———, Scott No. ———. It seems no one laid in a supply as long as it was available at face value. Prices have gone up substantially over the past few months. I recommend you try to find ——— soon. Scott ——— lists it at ———. Retail now is $—— quite a jump from a face of ——— at the ——— Post Office ——— years ago. Demand is worldwide. There is great interest in ——— and this issue belongs in every collection of ———. I believe if you buy it now, you might see it ——— in price in less than a year's time. Dealers now pay $—— which is ——— of ——— months ago."

Now that you have had your fun, I'd like to see the results. I'd like to know how impressionable I am.

WHAT IS TAIKWONDO ?

by Joe Schirmer
Associate Editor

On August 25, 1975, Korea issued a 20 won stamp commemorating the 2nd World Taikwondo Championships held in Seoul.

And just what the blazes in Taikwondo you ask ... this a sport? Yes it is, one of the oldest prominent arts of self defense left to us by our ancestors. This sport is peculiar to Korea and dates back some 3,000 years to the Kokuryo (Olden Korea). Later during the period of Silla, this sport was used to train the elite soldiers of the kingdom in combat techniques.

Today there are Taikwondo Leagues in Korea and in March 1973 a World Taikwondo League was organized with the hope of bringing this sport to all countries. The first Championship matches were held March 25, 1973. Taikwondo is the national martial art of Korea, and the leagues are working to spread the sport to most of the other nations of the world. And so, this is roughly what Taikwondo is and does.

A SIMPLIFIED CHECK-LIST OF COMPETITIVE SPORTS ON STAMPS

Bob Bruce and Jim Yarwood

Section 27

ADDITIONS, CORRECTIONS, AND DELETIONS IN SECTIONS 9-14

Note: Quite recently Gibbons changed the catalogue numbers on approximately one-quarter of its entries. To correct all these entries would require reprinting of a considerable portion of the check-list; this, of course, is extremely impractical. Accordingly, only those Gibbons numbers which appear in this section because of additions, corrections, or deletions will indicate the new Gibbons catalogue numbers. As previously, all additions and corrections have been underlined; all deletions have been ~~eliterated~~. Entries in parentheses imply no change; they are used only as points of reference for identification.
